2015 Top Policy Issues

Finance

"A central problem is that two-year colleges are asked to educate those students with the greatest needs, using the least funds, and in increasingly separate and unequal institutions. Our higher education system, like the larger society, is growing more and more unequal. We need radical innovations that redesign institutions and provide necessary funding tied to performance."

Community College Revenue Sources (Tuition/Fees, Local Property Taxes, State General Fund)

State Appropriations to Community Colleges

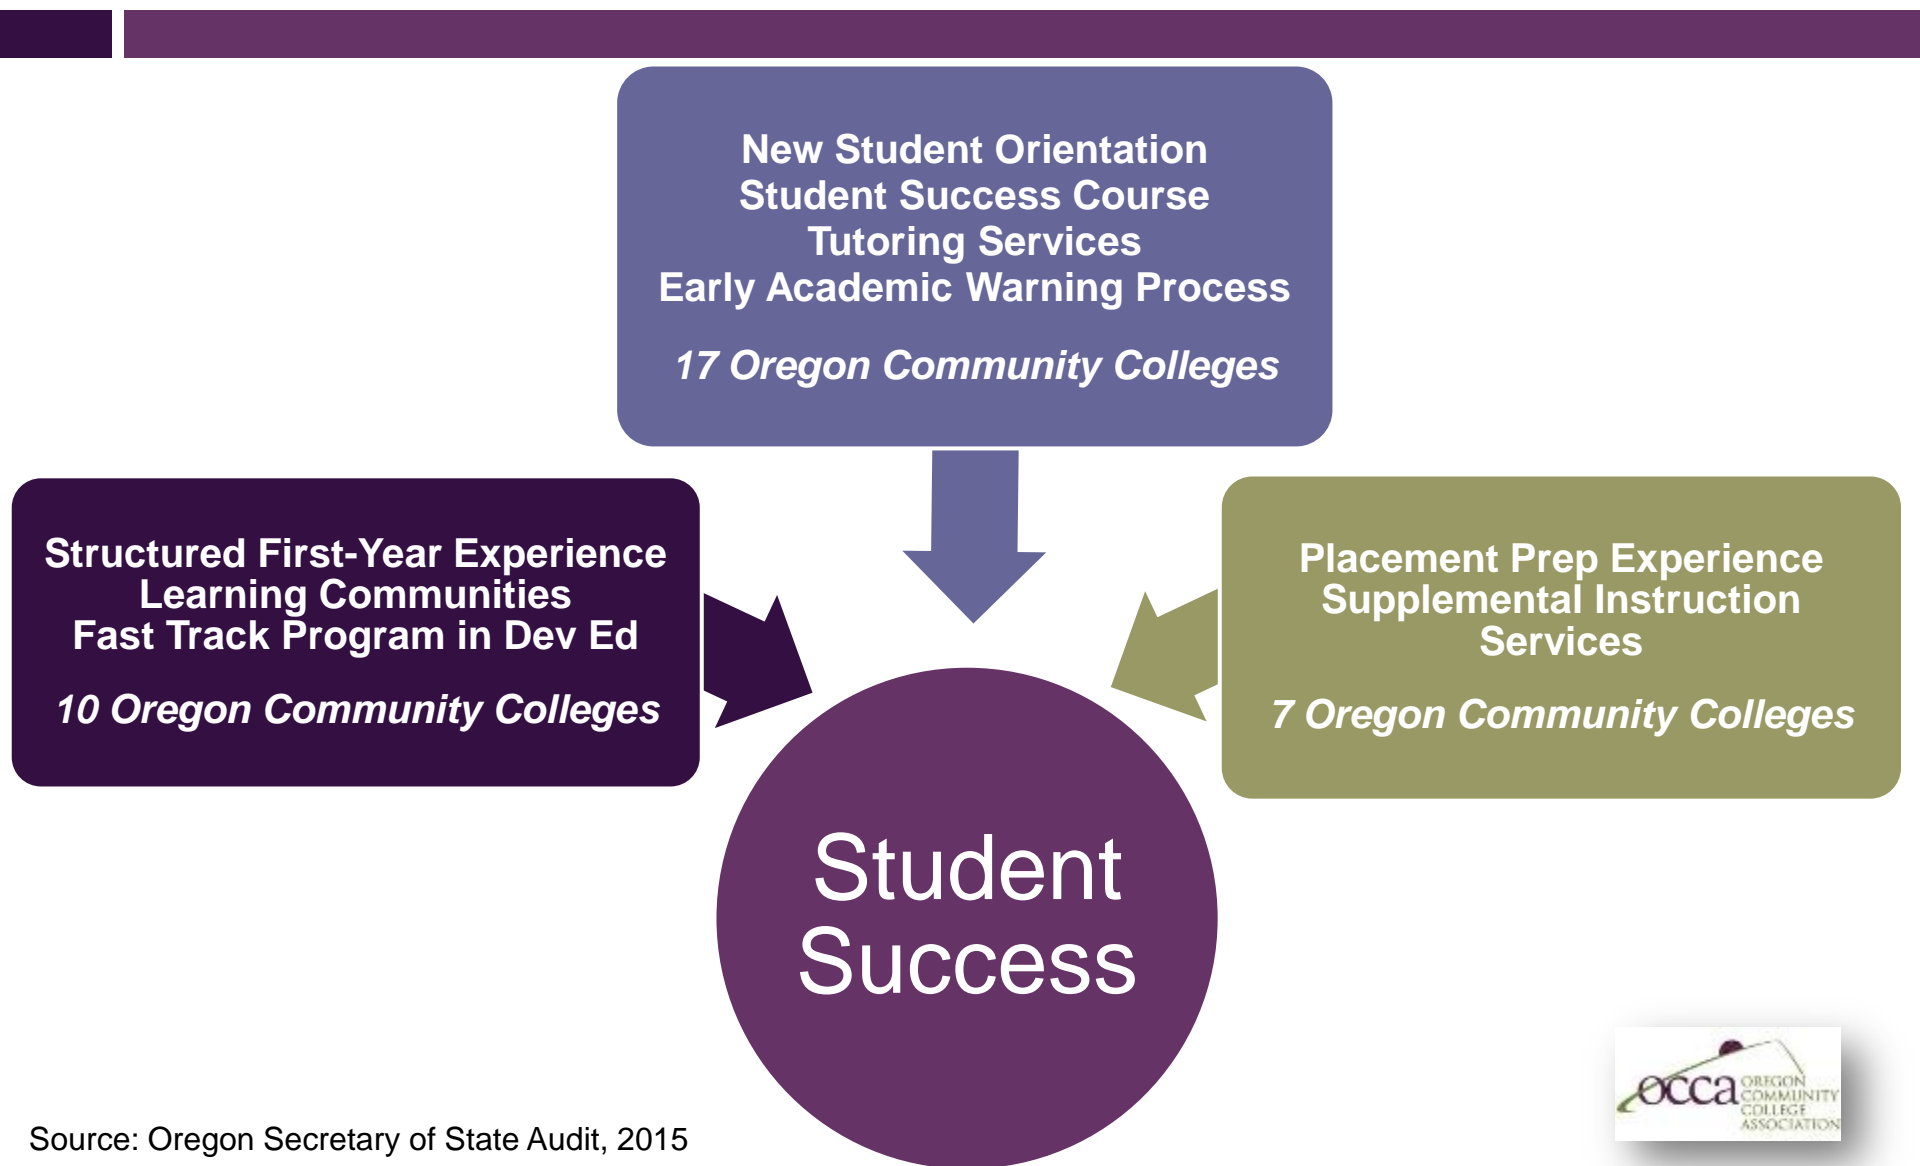

Completion Agenda (Or Access to What?)

“The American Dream is at risk. Community colleges can help reclaim it. But stepping up to the challenge will require dramatic redesign of these institutions, their missions, and most critically, students’ educational experiences.”
