Advising Redesign Webinar

The Oregon Student Success Center will be holding a webinar with Mei-Yen Ireland, Director of Integrated Student Support Strategies for Achieving the Dream (AtD), on Friday, October 12, 2018, 9:00-10:00am. Mei-Yen will be discussing the AtD integrated advising and student support framework along with advising redesign work as it relates to Guided Pathways. All Oregon community college faculty and staff are invited - here is the ZOOM link information: <https://bluecc.zoom.us/j/951673685>

What We (Are Not Supposed To) Talk About When We Talk About Pathways—and Why We Should

As a self-professed Pathways convert and as a working faculty member, Dr. Nicole Matos will offer a faculty-targeted workshops that approaches the implementation of Pathways approaches from a unique, provocative, and ultimately, inspiring angle. Through creative activities and frank engagement with the “hot spots” of Pathways fears and ambiguities, Nicole aims to help faculty better help their institutions best help students: opening critical dialogues and offering practical suggestions for positive action.

When: Friday, October 19, 2018

Time: 9:00am-4:00pm

Where: Lane Community College Center for Meeting and Learning (will also be streamed via the internet)

Cost: FREE; sponsored by the Oregon Student Success Center

Holistic Student Supports Institute

JFF is partnering with Achieving the Dream (ATD) again this year to support Student Success Center Network teams in attending the Holistic Student Supports Institute on October 8-11, 2018 in St. Louis, MO

This intensive working institute is designed to support teams in examining student movement through institutions and designing and executing a coherent strategy for designing a student support model that supports the whole student, based on ATD's Holistic Student Supports Framework. The audience is state- and college-level leaders who are engaged in leading student supports redesign efforts across your state.

Executive Director Brand, along with representatives from six Oregon community colleges, will be attending the institute. The OSSC goals for the institute are:

1. Develop team strategy for disseminating the Holistic Student Supports Framework to other Oregon community colleges
2. Develop action plans for implementation of Holistic Student Supports Framework for individual campuses

Information from the institute will be shared in future newsletters.
