

AGENDA

Building Better Math Pathways

April 12, 2024, Hotel Benson, Portland, OR

9:00am-4:00pmPT

- Purpose This training will focus on relationship building between non-credit math and credit math departments for faculty, staff, and administrators committed to ensuring equitable math pathways are available to every community college student.
- 9:00am Welcoming, Centering, and Introductions
- 9:30am Get to Know Your Tablemates through Math
- 10:00am Misconceptions – Let’s Call Them Out
- 10:50am BREAK
- 11:00 Who are Our Students?
- 11:30am Working Lunch
- Discuss concerns or potential challenges for implementing aligned math pathways
- 12:30pm The CASAS Test
- 12:45pm Digging in to the College & Career Readiness Standards (CCRS)
- 1:45pm BREAK
- 2:00pm Looking at Pathways Models from WA: Zoom Panel Discussion
- 3:00pm Aligning Non-Credit and Credit Math at Your Campus
- 3:45pm Closing the Loop
- 4:00pm Adjourn

Special thanks to our colleagues at the Washington State Board of Community and Technical Colleges- MarcusAntonio Gunn, Dawn Draus, and Katelynn Orellana – and Catie Graham, Lower Columbia College.