OCCA congratulates community colleges’ Class of 2024

SALEM, Ore. – The Oregon Community College Association (OCCA) would like to extend its congratulations to all of the graduates of the Class of 2024 in Oregon’s 17 community colleges.

“These students have persevered, often through many challenges, to achieve this important accomplishment of a college certificate or degree,” said OCCA President Jane Reid. “They should be proud of this milestone on their path to future successes.”

OCCA would also like to commend the faculty and staff of Oregon’s community colleges for their dedication and support of these students and their success.
